ACFE Roundtable

Become a host – your benefits at a glance

ACFE
Association of Certified Fraud Examiners
German Chapter

The ACFE German Chapter regularly holds Roundtables in major German cities – a hands-on platform for knowledge sharing and networking in the fight against fraud. As a host, you provide the venue and place your organisation at the heart of a committed professional community.

Your benefits as a host

Reputation & visibility
Demonstrate your commitment against economic crime in front of a high-calibre professional audience.

Access to experts & leaders
Connect with around 30 professionals and senior leaders from internal investigations, audit, governance, risk & compliance – right at your site.

Building a local community
Become the regular meeting point for the anti-fraud community in your region and help build a vibrant local professional network.

Professional insights
Current, practice-oriented topics and external speakers deliver real value – for your own team as well.

Contribution to the community
Strengthen the anti-fraud network in Germany and give something back to the profession.

Minimal effort
The ACFE German Chapter handles the programme, speakers, registration and promotion – you provide the room.

How it works – clear roles

What you provide as host
- Venue for approx. 30 people
- A date in the afternoon or evening (Wed/Thu recommended)
- Optional: catering & informal get-together
- An on-site contact person on the day of the event

What the ACFE German Chapter handles
- Programme design & content curation
- Support in matching suitable speakers
- Registration & attendee management via acfe.de
- Promotion within the ACFE community & LinkedIn group

Good to know: our guiding principle

- The ACFE Roundtable is a neutral forum for knowledge exchange – not a sales event.
- This preserves the independent, practice-oriented character of the format for all participants.
